B.F. Goodrich Autoless —because you don't need a car, just tires

Why bother owning a car, when your tires are the only contact with the road? Think about all the places you'll be driving this fall... the golf course, the supermarket, the hospital. Wherever you drive, there's something important to keep in mind. It's costing you a fortune! And it doesn't have to. Why spend that extra money for gas, oil, lubrications, insurance, 3-minute car washes, when you don't need a car... just tires!

That's why your family should avail itself of the economy offered by B. F. Goodrich CAR-SAVER Autoless Tires. CAR-SAVERS are backed by 8 years of use and proof that only the inventor of Autoless, B. F. Goodrich, can offer, because nobody else but the inventor has dared to try them. A patented inner liner protects against blowouts. The patented grip-lock tread protects against dangerous skids. The only thing we still haven't worked out is how to protect you! CAR-SAVERS with floating seats give extra comfort.

Autoless CAR-SAVERS with floating seats offer the added comfort of eliminating bruising impacts caused by road-drag. Switch to the extra economy of CAR-SAVER Autoless Tires today. Start saving immediately. Remember... you don't need a car, just tires!

Your B. F. Goodrich retailer will give you a big allowance for your car towards price of four CAR-SAVER Tires. See him now. You'll find him listed in the yellow pages under "Levitation." B. F. Goodrich Company, Travelon, Air.

CAR-SAVER PROTECTS AGAINST SKIDS, PUNCTURES, FINANCE CO.

CAR-SAVER has patented inner liner, part of tire itself, that slows air loss. Instead of dangerous blowout, whole liner comes out, s-s-slowly like spaghetti!

CAR-SAVER seals punctures permanently. Patented sealant gets airtight grip on nails, then holds on. More economy, if you're a home craftsman!

CAR-SAVER grip-locks flex, wipe away water, hold on dried path. They stop short, but unfortunately, you keep on going. Something else to be worked out!

VITAL FEATURES

ELVIS PELVIS 2

While controversial Elvis continues to inspire teenagers and incite parents, MAD's article on him will surely get same reaction.

GUNSMOKED 6

Realistic T.V. show strips glamour from old west days, paints a vivid picture of things as they really were, and disillusion kids.

BOWLING 20

As millions of people yearly join the swing to this popular sport, MAD shows the millions who haven't how well-off they've been.

MORBID DICK 27

Hollywood does a remake of Melvin's classic, spreads it on Cinemascope screen, and shows whale from nose to tail for first time.

PULP MAGAZINES 34

MAD recalls the material once run in pulp magazines, now almost vanished from the newsstands, and foolishly invites same fate.

A SAW SCREAMS AT MIDNIGHT... 38

Carl Reiner, who helps Sid Caesar on TV, is shocked to learn he also helps MAD by posing for photos in "Do-it-yourself" book.

MAD MERIT BADGES 40

With various organizations offering awards for constructive activities, MAD fills need, offers awards for destructive activities.

DIZZYLAND 42

Walt Dizzy and his Midas-like touch of gold is the target for MAD's satire darts in this piece which shows how jealous we are.

MASS HYSTERIA DEPT.

With this article MAD takes another step in its insidious campaign of examining, evaluating, and then destroying culture in general by turning its attention to the interesting and baffling phenomenon of...

Gasping, shouting, and shrieking, audience of teen-agers leap from seats, dance in aisles, and stampede toward stage moment Elvis Pelvis strums electric guitar and begins to sing. Shrieking, dancing and stampeding reaction is due to teen-agers' sudden shocked discovery that electricity wired into Elvis's guitar is also wired into the audience seats.

ELVIS PELVIS

In the music business, it seems that Perry Como, with his relaxed and flaccid style of singing, makes new friends and wins new plaudits each time he makes an appearance.

On the other hand, it seems that Elvis Pelvis, with his frenzied shake, wriggle, squirm, rock and roll style of howling, makes new enemies and incites new objections each time he makes an appearance.

Since this kind of reaction is familiar to us (the same thing seems to happen in the magazine business each time MAD makes an appearance), your Editors attended a performance of said teen-age idol in order to see what gives.

What gives, we observed, is Elvis's pelvis.

Candid pictures of Elvis, one-time hillbilly singer, show sensuous motions which punctuate sensuous lament. Sensuous motions and lament are caused by sentimental holdover from hillbilly days. Elvis still wears itchy flannel longjohns.

FREE FALL FERRIS

It's all right to do an article on Free Fall Ferris, since it cannot be denied that his personal courage has taken us a step nearer to the conquest of space. But why write him up as such a swell guy? Those of us who served with him in the USAF remember him as a dirty little stinker. This is just to get the record straight.

Your fine coverage of that famous, yet unsung hero of the Aerobee Rocket ascent was lacking in one respect: The cooperation of Art and Editorial Depts. The story says that the two monkeys chickened out, while the pictures show that inseparable trio "Hear No Evil, See No Evil, and Speak No Evil." Who is covering up? Did the editor let his writer into his Billows Cotton Pick? Have the artists been stealing Padst Red Ribbon Urrp?

BUBBLE GUM CARDS

I was terribly disappointed to see my great ancestor, Milton Forbisher, so unhappily represented in your "Famous Cowards" Bubble Gum Cards. Milton was no coward. He'd had five quarts of Padst Red Ribbon Urrp just before he went into battle.

Tom Louis

I resent what your Hobby Dept. wrote about my great-great-grandfather, Milton Forbisher. How could he shoot before he saw the whites of their eyes when poor Milton was color blind? It's a proven fact!

DINING ETIQUETTE

Upon reading the article on etiquette, I proceeded to test myself. I got all the wrong answers. Up until then, my folks hadn't said a word about my manners. But now that I've reformed and started eating the MAD way, I am constantly being picked on by them for my bad manners. Which is what I've been trying to accomplish all along! Thanks.

TEENAGERS

Maybe you get your information from teenagers in N. Y. for your articles. They sure don't resemble teenagers out here. Our customs are different than those in your mag. We don't wear boots, jeans, tee-shirts, or black jackets. We wear wedgies, peggers, long-sleeved shirts, and club jackets.

GRINGO

I have a correspondence GRINGO game going with a scientist at White Sands. He shouted "Gringo" recently, but instead of just throwing his three darts, he attached rockets to them. Please advise me if this is fair as I have two holes in my roof. (The third dart downed a B-59 in the vicinity of Denver.)

Jeremy Millett

Just got a set of GRINGO and think it's great. Have already won seven hundred dollars. The secret is in using poison-tipped darts. But I've found that I'm running out of opponents. What should I do?

ADVICE DEPT.

I was shocked by Alfred E. Neuman's advice in his "Answers Your Questions" page. Yech! Any fraternity man can tell you that's no way to tie a hangman's knot. It is tied thusly: Around, back, over, over, over, over, over, over, over, over, over, over, and through... with a loop geometrically similar to the graph of $ay^2 = x(x-b)^2$.

Walter Vaux
Seattle, Wash.

Hangman's Knot?

Alfred E. Neuman says you tie a hangman's knot thusly: Right over left, left around right, through and under. This is completely wrong! It is tied thusly: Right over left, right around left, through and over. That is the correct method.

PROBLEM:

Ever since I can remember, I've been terribly fond of stuffing birds . . .

My wife, however, can't stand my stuffing birds . . .

She says our home is getting so crowded with stuffed birds, she doesn't know who she's talking to anymore . . .

I love my wife . . .

But I love my stuffed birds more! What can I do?

Combine your loves! Even though she has no feathers, your wife will probably look good on the mantle, next to that specimen of the rare Ring-Necked Fuzzwort.

THE MANLY ART OF SELF DEFENSE

The editors of MAD, striving ever onwards and upwards in pursuit of the uncouth, herewith reprint a rare and valuable treatise on the Manly Art of Self Defense. (We say manly art of self-defense because in most fights, it's women who men got to defend themselves against). At any rate, this rare and valuable treatise, originally written by Edmund E. Price and published in New York in 1867, was obtained for MAD only after hours of exhausting and persistent effort on the part of the research department. (She had to follow an old guy on a junk cart for at least six blocks before he would stop and sell it.) Since this is a Scientific work and since anything scientific has got to be full of big words to make it sound even more scientific, the editors of MAD herewith provide at the bottom of each paragraph a translation in plain language of what's being scientifically said about a fast bust in the kisser.

Introduction

A MAN without a head could by no possibility become a Boxer. The same would be implied by the absence of arms. Arms may be supplied by the surgical machinist and while these may not at present be perfectly able to perform all the duties demanded by the scientific Boxer, the continuous progress of positive manufacture gives us the right to presume that the competency of artificial arms will not forever be imperfect. Should it ever be perfected, a blow from an iron clenched hand would be so decidedly advantageous to the man who gave it that if that point were reached in our time we might not be unwilling to undergo amputation for the purpose of replacing the amputated member with a much harder and more rapid hitter.

With the head it is decidedly different. For this reason we do strongly recommend our readers to look after this very important organ.

FIRST BLOW

A BLOW, delivered with an adequate amount of momentum, and a fair proportion of pluck, will, should it take effect, be productive of considerable inconvenience to the individual receiving it.

TRANSLATION:

Hittum where it'll do tha' most good!

FIRST PARRY

BE careful in your parry that it be not too rapid; for should it be so, it might expose you to a singularly unpleasant reception of the consequences of your too great haste.

CONTINUED

TRANSLATION:

Don't be chicken, get in there an' fight!

SECOND BLOW

THIS blow is aimed at the lower portion of the human anatomy, known as the apigastrium to one branch of science and the bread-basket to another. This blow will be a decided teaser!

TRANSLATION:

Low blow! Foul! Take 'im outta there, tha' no good bum!

SECOND PARRY

THIS is a guard for the pit of the stomach. Should you entertain a strong desire for immediate retaliation, you may drop your right arm at right angles across the pit of your stomach.

TRANSLATION:

Tennis, anyone?

THIRD BLOW

THIS blow is struck at the right side of the face. Remember that in no case should your hand be delivered at random as it is certain to render you up as an easy prey to a wily opponent.

TRANSLATION:

Pow! Right in tha kisser!

THIRD PARRY

THIS is a difficult parry to accomplish neatly. Recede from the blow by a sudden movement. Recession would not be cowardice. The truth is that recession is desirable from every blow.

TRANSLATION:

Let's dance... they're playing OUR SONG!

FOURTH BLOW

THIS is given with the right hand and should be directed at your opponent's ribs. Be prepared to guard against the return blow which your opponent might be disposed to favor you with.

TRANSLATION:

Quit tha waltzin', girls an' le's start fightin'!

FOURTH PARRY

IN this parry, your right arm is thrown upward and outward. Never catch a blow upon the arm as it must cause injury and render the arm less capable for administering future punishment.

TRANSLATION:

What are them guys fightin' in long pants for anyway?

SCENES WE'D LIKE TO SEE

The Gladiator and the Empress

Intalandi

Leave us face it . . .

. . . this is a heck of a thing to do to a mouse!

Uncivilized, isn't it? And yet, in the homes they share all over the country, millions of innocent American mice are daily meeting this same sudden cruel fate. Think about this for a moment or two. Think hard about this. Think of yourself in this mouse's shoes. By George, you'll have to think hard about this, since any fool knows mice don't wear shoes!

All kidding aside, this article has been written because MAD has a conscience. This article has been written because MAD has a feeling for poor little animals. But mainly, this article has been written because MAD has these two pages to fill up. And so, on these two pages, MAD suggests six new approaches to the problem of trapping mice. On these two pages...

MAD BUILDS A MORE CIVILIZED MOUSE TRAP

THE ARTISTIC APPROACH

Culture-loving mouse passes through attractive entrance (A) of trap designed to look like high class art gallery (B). Corridors (C) and (D) are lined with framed microscopic reproductions of valuable old masters. Door to salon (E) has sign (F) announcing special showing of original world famous painting of the Mona Lisa. Excited mouse rushes into salon (G), sees frame (H) with canvas (I) slashed to ribbons (J), and has heart attack.

THE ATHLETIC APPROACH

Muscle-flexing, he-man-type mouse is urged by cleverly-worded sign (A) to prove strength by slamming lever (B) with sledge-hammer (C) sending weight (D) up wire (E) ringing bell on top (F). Gullible mouse confidently makes attempt (G) but ingeniously tapered wire (E) prevents weight (D) from reaching bell (F). Stubborn mouse, after trying in vain all night, collapses from exhaustion.

THE FANTASTIC APPROACH

Science-Fiction-minded mouse, lured from hole (A) by strange recorded sound (B), watches in awe as mechanical flying saucer (C) makes simulated landing. Mouse's excitement mounts as door in saucer (D) opens and ladder (E) is extended. At sight of emerging horrible alien creature (F), terrified mouse drops dead.

THE POLITICAL APPROACH

Civic-minded mouse sees marquee (A) announcing big mass-meeting political rally, eagerly enters doorway (B) of trap designed to look like huge auditorium jammed with stuffed mice (C), moves down aisle (D), slides into only available seat (E), turns attention to rabble-rousing mechanical speaker (F) delivering tape-recorded political address (G), and is scalded to death by blasts of hot air.

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL APPROACH

Neurotic-type mouse impulsively enters door (A) of trap designed to look like mouse-psychiatrist's office (B), lies down on couch (C), tells all to mechanical nodding mouse-analyst (D) for usual hour session (E), is then handed bill (F), and at sight of outlandish charge (G), blows top.

THE HUMOROUS APPROACH

Reader-of-Mad-Type Mouse, attracted from hole (A) by current issue of this magazine (B) opened to this article (C), sees sheer idiocy of suggested civilized approaches (D, E, F, G, & H), knows that old-fashioned gadget is only effective method of trapping mice, and dies laughing.

FAIR WARNING DEPT.

And now, MAD, mindful of its responsibility to readers and anxious to allow them to gain any advantage, however small, over non-readers, presents this next vital article.

MOTORIST

THE SEE-SAWING WAR OF RECOGNITION B

First strategic move came when police deduced that isolated two-tone patrol cars were easily recognized by motorists driving all black cars.

Strategic move by police consisted of painting two-tone patrol cars black to match motorists' black cars, thereby forestalling recognition.

Motorists retaliated quickly by trading in black cars for pastel-colored varieties, thus again isolating rare, out-of-place black patrol cars.

Police Departments around the country are going all-out to enforce the laws of the highways, and rightly so. Yes, even MAD is for highway safety and law enforcement. But it is the method used that we object to . . . method being this trend toward non-police-looking police cars that catch the unsuspecting motorist unawares. Up to now, motorists have been able to cope with the problem of how to recognize police cars (see above), despite the Police Departments' insidious campaign to remain hidden. But recently, MAD learned that the latest move on the part of the motorists (taking to wearing bright hued clothing) has infuriated the Police Departments. After all, an officer of the law must wear a uniform, or else how are people going to respect him? So now, the police have come up with the most devilish

A WARNING OF THINGS TO COME..NEW SE

GOOD HUMOR TRUCK

Police mobile radar unit disguised as a Good Humor truck will check speeding cars. Alert motorists, however, will be able to tell fake police Good Humor truck from real thing. Police Good Humor man will be too busy consulting radar screen to ring his bell. If you see a Good Humor man who is not ringing his bell . . . slow down!

BABY CARRIAGE

Innocent-looking baby carriage will be another device to catch erring motorists. Carriage, equipped with 180 horsepower engine, will do 85 mph, accelerating to top speed from a standing start in 12 seconds. Carries one midget policeman inside, regular-sized policeman as steerer. Watch for steerer's retractable roller skates!

LEMONADE STAND

Police helicopter disguised as lemonade stand will hover over highways and trap speeders. However, alert motorists will be able to tell fake police stand from real one. Real lemonade stand will not have rotating umbrella and, depending on strength of lemonade sold, real stand will not be more than a foot off the ground. Careful!

BEWARE!

BETWEEN MOTORISTS AND POLICE TO DATE

Police counterattacked by discarding rare black patrol cars, acquiring new pastel-colored ones to match motorists', again gaining advantage.

Motorists' latest move was to adapt outlandish clothing styles like plaid caps and chartreuse jackets, thus isolating dull police uniforms.

But war of recognition is not yet over. While motorists drive on with a false sense of security, police are readying secret weapons (below).

plan of all to trap the motorist into the traffic courts. Disguised patrol cars that don't even look like cars!

The indignant editors of MAD feel that fire should be met with fire. After exhaustive research we have spied out the majority of disguises planned and are herewith exposing them (see below). We are also preparing a booklet entitled, "How to Disguise Your Car and Thus Avoid Inconvenience."

This booklet will tell how, with a little paint and some minor revisions, you can make your car appear like a small ranch house, a rock garden or a base fiddle. If you wish to obtain this booklet, simply address a card "To whom it may concern" and deposit it in the pouch of any large kangaroo you see at the zoo. We feel that, for the time being, it's best to keep this movement as well-hidden as possible.

SECRET WEAPONS...DISGUISED POLICE CARS

SLED AND DOG TEAM

By this winter, police will have put into action patrol unit disguised as Alaskan sled complete with 8 mechanized huskies. A V-1 motor will be concealed in each of the mechanical dogs, giving this job the equivalent of a V-8 dogpower engine. To tell fake police sled and dog team from the real thing on icy roads...listen for barking!

SNOWMAN

Another winter device will be motorized policeman hidden inside plastic snowman. Although this unit will not be able to attain as high a speed as other vehicles, the thought behind it is that any motorist who sees himself being chased by a snowman will automatically slow down. To tell a fake, blast with exhaust, then check for melting.

FOUR-MAN BOBSLED

Keep an eye out for this baby on hilly highways. Disguised as a four-man bobsled, this device is powered by a 225 hp. engine with a 9.25 to 1 compression ratio and four-speed transmission. It carries two policemen, a recording clerk and a traffic court justice for on-the-spot trials. Watch for tell-tale gavel-rapping anchor man!

Wood

Recently, MAD was presented with a serious and touching problem. This problem was so serious and so touching, it kept us awake nights thinking about it. What happens to the comic-strip character of yesteryear? Where does he go, once his popularity has waned? What does he do to while away each endless day of obscurity?

We thought about this serious and touching problem for a long time, and then we decided to do something about it. We decided to build a home for these lovable old cast-off comic-strip characters. We decided to establish a place where they could spend the rest of eternity happily, a veritable drawing board in the sky. Below is a picture of our finished product.

Now MAD has another serious and touching problem: How we gonna pay for it?

- (1) Little Nemo, Flip, Felix the Clown. (2) Chief Wahoo.
- (3) The Hitchhiker from "The Squirrel Cage". (4) Barnaby, Mr. O'Malley. (5) Flyin' Jenny. (6) Batman and Robin; semi-retired, still in comic books. (7) Bruce Gentry. (8) Ace Drummond. (9) Tailspin Tommy. (10) Barney Baxter. (11) Peter Piltown, Charlie, Minnie, Shadrach the Hermit. (12) The Spirit, Ebony, Commissioner Dolan. (13) Scorchy Smith. Where are those nice loving couples you used to see in the park each evening, walking hand-in-hand or smooching?

What's happened to those nice friendly folks you used to see in their homes every evening, playing bridge or poker? Hah?

Where are those tough-looking teenagers you used to see on the street corners each evening, getting in trouble? Hah?

Oops! They're still there!

PICTURES BY JACK DAVIS

Well anyway, what about the rest of the people? Where are they these evenings? Here's where they are! Indulging in the sport that enables them to unleash all their pent-up hostilities!

Yes, this is it! If you've got any pent-up hostilities, this is the sport that enables you to unleash them. And if you haven't got any pent-up hostilities, this is the sport that enables you to get some plenty quick. Just pick up one of those sixteen-pound balls (if you can), imagine that those ten pins down there some sixty-odd feet away are your ten worst enemies, and let 'em have it! What a thrill! Just listen to the rumble as the ball thunders down the alley! Just listen to the deafening roar as the ball collides with wood! Just listen to the splintering crash as the pins fly in all directions! Just listen to the blood-curdling shriek as the pinboy gets hit in the head! By George, what a thrill! By George, it makes you feel good! By George, so that's why, these evenings, everybody with pent-up hostilities is...

DIAGRAMS BELOW SHOW TYPES OF THROWS USED IN BOWLING

THE STRAIGHT BALL

There is never any doubt when you use the straight ball delivery. Just as soon as you release the ball, it heads straight for the gutter!

THE HOOK BALL

The hook ball delivery fools you at first. Just before it's about to smash into the pins, it takes a quick spin and hooks right into the gutter!

THE CURVE BALL

The curve ball fools you even more! It looks like it's headed for the right gutter, but then it reverses path and lands in the opposite gutter!

THE LOFT BALL

The loft ball delivery fools the pinboy by striking mid way down the alley, lofting over the pins, and knocking him square into the gutter!

LEARNING TO BOWL

Lesson 1: Gripping the Ball

The bowling ball is gripped with 3 fingers, the middle finger, the index finger and the thumb, which fit into the 3 special holes provided.

Hold hand with these three fingers pointing downward, fold the others back, approach ball rack, and slip fingers into holes in bowling ball.

Grasp bowling ball firmly and lift. You are now ready for the next important step in learning to bowl: The Approach. Carry ball ... OOOOPS!

One important thing we forgot to tell you about gripping the ball ... Be sure your fingers aren't greasy ... and that holes aren't too big!

Lesson 2: The Approach

The important thing in the approach is to have perfect form. Start with feet together. Now, take a 14 inch step with your left foot (1), followed quickly by your right foot, stepping about twice that distance (2). Slow up on the next left, which is another 14 inch step (3). Then cross over with your right foot, and slide on it. You'll find this to be rather awkward for bowling but on a dance floor, with the right music, it's a terrific Mambo!

MAGIC-EYE CAMERA SEQUENCE CATCHES PERFECT BOWLING ALLEY FORM

A SIMPLE OUTLINE OF HOW TO SCORE IN BOWLING...

Scoring is a fascinating and enjoyable part of the game of bowling. If you know how to score, you are indeed fortunate, mainly because scoring gives you a chance to sit down. Here, then, is a brief simple outline of how to keep score. To make it even simpler, we have supplied a typical score (above) which you can follow while learning. Ready? Then here goes...

A game of bowling consists of ten innings, or frames. There are ten pins set up for each frame, and you have two balls, or chances to knock as many of them down as you can. If you knock down, say, seven pins with your two balls in the first frame, you put a seven in the first frame's big box. No, the little box is not for the score the midgets bowling in the next alley make, the little box is in case you make a spare or a strike. If you knock down all ten pins with your two balls, that is a spare. If you knock down all ten pins with your first ball, that is a strike. If you make a spare, you don't put anything down in the big box, you put a spare sign in the little box. This gives you ten pins plus the amount of pins you knock down with your next ball. If you get a strike, you put a strike sign in the little box, and this gives you ten pins plus the amount of pins you knock down with your next two balls. Thus, if you get a spare in the first frame, and you knock down eight pins with the first ball in the second frame, you can see that you get eighteen in the first frame. If you get a strike in the first frame and knock down nine pins with both balls in the second frame, you can see that you get nineteen in the first frame and nine more in the second frame, for a total of twenty-eight.

However, if you get ten pins with both balls in the second frame, you can see that this gives you twenty points in the first frame and a spare sign in the second frame, which means that in the second frame, you'll add ten points to the twenty in the first frame plus the amount of pins you knock down with the first ball in the third frame. Now, if you get a strike with the first ball in the second frame, and you already had a strike in the first frame, then you can't put anything down in the first frame because, as you can see, you still have another ball coming which won't be rolled till the third frame. Thus, the pins you knock down with that first ball in the third frame will be added to the ten pins you knocked down with the strike ball in the second frame, and all that will be added to the ten pins you knocked down with the strike ball in the first frame to give you your first frame's score. Then, the pins you knock down with the second ball you roll in the third frame will be added to the pins you knocked down with the first ball in the third frame, and that will be added to the ten pins you knocked down with the strike ball in the second frame which will be added to the score in the first frame to give you the score in the second frame. Now, if you happen to get a strike with the first ball you roll in the third frame, then you still owe one more ball to the second frame which won't be rolled till the fourth frame, and which will be the first of the two you owe to the third frame, and...

Well, as you can see, when it comes to scoring, here is one place where you can get rid of plenty pent-up hostility.

MOVIE DEPT.

АНАТОЛИЙ

The other Friday (fish day, to be sure!), your editors went down to sea. That is, we went down to see a picture playing at a first-run N. Y. movie theatre. It was a picture all about a whale. And, boy, you should have heard the wail we wailed! Not that we wailed when we saw how the whale dies at the end in this picture. We didn't even wail when we saw how practically everybody dies at the end in this picture. We wailed mainly when we saw how much money we had to pay to see this picture in a first-run N. Y. movie theatre. Anyway, when we got through wailing, we paid our buck-eighty-five and saw this picture all about the hunt for the Great White Whale named ...

Morbid Dick

IN PICTURE'S STIRRING FINAL SCENES, Captain Aslob (played by Legory Peg), bearing a startling resemblance to Abe Lincoln, stands astride Morbid Dick and skillfully demonstrates the fine old art of whale-splitting.

CHARACTERS IN MELVIN'S BOOK COME ALIVE IN PICTURE'S STARK REALITY

"Call me Fishmeal!"

WITH THESE OMINOUS WORDS, Morbid Dick begins as we see Fishmeal (played by Richard Basehearted) wending way over rugged countryside looking for New Bedford, Mass. He has hard time finding it . . . since picture is being shot in Ireland.

Queeg-Queeg, Ex-Cannibal

NEXT WE MEET Queeg-Queeg, ex-Cannibal turned Harpooner, who speaks with odd Middle-European accent. He has been wandering around New Bedford trying to sell his head but gives up the idea because, without it, his aim would be poor.

Father Maplesyrup, Ex-Sea Captain

EX-SEA CAPTAIN Father Maplesyrup (played by Osome Bells), who turned preacher after losing his ship when it rammed through rear of church, delivers sermon on Jonah and whale from bow-sprit pulpit. Right off, they give away whole plot.

♦♦ Chances are the red-faced boozier who knocks the bouncer out with one punch thinks he's tough.

The Mad Prophet

AS THEY BOARD whaling bark Peckwad, Fishmeal and Queeg-Queeg are stopped by wide-eyed ragged stranger who makes startling and foreboding prophecy . . . prophecy being that the voyage will be ill-fated! MAD will certainly lampoon it!

Starstruck, the First Mate

DISGRUNTLED at supporting part he has to play, Peckwad's first mate, Mr. Starstruck (played by Lee O'Genn), fails in attempt to stir up crew, change plot, turn picture into another "Mutiny on the Bounty" with him in Clark Gable role.

Various Sad-Faced Women

LOCAL IRISH WOMENFOLK, used as extras to represent sad-faced New Bedford wives bidding men goodbye, are actually members of local Barry Fitzgerald Fan Club conned into lining up on quay in anticipation of his arrival by seaplane.

HALFWAY THROUGH PICTURE, CAPTAIN ASLOB FINALLY MAKES AN APPEARANCE

TENSE SCENE comes when Captain Aslob finally appears on quarterdeck.

TENSION MOUNTS as he offers coin to first man who spots Morbid Dick.

TENSION IS UNBEARABLE as he nails coin to mast as incentive.

TENSION IS SUDDENLY RELIEVED as he misses, slams thumb with hammer.

BITTER WHALING CAPTAIN ASLOB, BENT ON REVENGE, FIRES UP HIS CREW

CRAVING REVENGE upon the Great White Whale which has mutilated him, Captain Aslob succeeds in inflaming the crew members into sharing his hatred for Morbid Dick by sparking them with impassioned pleas, by igniting them with promises of money, but mainly by getting them lit with plenty grog!

MORTALLY WOUNDED BY HARPOONS imbedded in thick hide, ordinary black whale drags dories over waves in wild maneuver known as "Nantucket Sleigh-Ride", clearly indicating origin of modern sport of water skiing.

INTERESTING SCENE in picture takes place when Captain Aslob, who lost leg in a previous run-in with Morbid Dick, holds a rendezvous at sea with other captains who also have had unhappy exchanges with Great White Whale.

WHALE HUNTS, CALMS, STORMS, HOT TEMPERERS, BUILD TO PICTURE'S CLIMAX

MORBID SCENE comes when whaler Peckwad is becalmed on vast Pacific and Cannibal Harpooner Queeg-Queeg, who foretells dismal future with pick-up-sticks, commissions ship's carpenter to build him a water-tight coffin.

AS WILD TYPHOON engulfs ship, crew scrambles into rigging, not to furl sails but to get fifty-yardarm seats for showdown between axe-aiming Star-struck and harpoon-hefting Aslob, with St. Elmo's fire sparking things.

ULTIMATE HEIGHT OF MORBIDITY is reached during same dismal scene when bored and restless crew members amuse themselves by using their clasp knives to play a gay version of tick-tack-toe on Queeg-Queeg's chest . . .

HOWEVER, WATER-LOGGED SAIL, torn loose by raging storm, falls to deck where mutinous first mate is squaring off with stubborn Captain and quickly ends fight by dropping wet blanket on whole furshlugginer proceeding.

PICTURE'S MORBID CLIMAX (when White Whale is at last engaged, when Captain Aslob is dragged to watery grave, when Peckwad is rammed and sunk, when entire crew save Fishmeal, drowns,) created baffling technical problem for film makers. Problem being: who's gonna take whale's part?

ABOVE IS SCENE as it appears on screen. After trying several promising whales, problem of casting Morbid Dick was solved by using disguised World War II surplus blimp. However, as is obvious in above scene, new problem arose. Rolling bogus whale kept exposing large black letters: "U. S. NAVY".

FINAL MORBID SCENE SHOWS FISHMEAL PADDLING INTO PORT ON QUEEG-QUEEG'S COFFIN

ALFRED E. NEUMAN ANSWERS YOUR QUESTIONS

PROBLEM:

My girl friend and I are very much in love . . .

If it weren't for her father, we'd get married tomorrow . . .

But her father has a sadistic sense of humor, and I hate him for it . . .

He makes fun of our billing and cooing, and constantly embarrasses us . . .

He laughs and says the only way we'll ever get married is over his dead body! What shall I do?—Desperate.

SOLUTION:

Go along with his gag! Admit that he's right and then act accordingly. Best of luck.

PULP MAGAZINES

Because the pulp magazines from which we learned in our youth how to behave in commonplace situations (such as being shot down in flames, or eaten alive by a Martian crocodile-man) are in sad shape these days, one can no longer find such old favorites such as Adventure Ructions, Esmerelda of Africa, Sports Yawns, Middle Western, or Soggy Love Stories.

Therefore, as a public service, and mainly in the hope that we sell more MADs, we have gotten Mr. James Blish to write the following assortment of typical pulp magazine stories for the few remaining bloody pulp readers.

This article, with pictures posed by Carl Reiner of the Sid Caesar show, is concerned with the craze of "Do-it-yourself", currently sweeping the country. So this article is dedicated to the crazy do-it-yourselfers, currently sweeping their cellars. MAD, vitally interested in the strange continued increase in sales of Band-Aids, peered into windows, looked up old craft guild histories, pored over tool catalogues, and finally came up with this article. We came up with this article mainly when we swiped it from a book* we found at our local lending library. Here then, is a capsule version of . . .

A SAW SCREAMS AT MIDNIGHT

With this simple tool . . .

. . . a pioneer built this

With these tools . . .

. . . a home craftsman built this

Maybe you live with one, maybe you're one yourself, but certainly you know one—a Handy Andy, a Mr. Fixit, the guy with a cellar full of tools and sawdust in his hair instead of dandruff. He's the home craftsman, the do-it-yourselfer, the fugitive from a lumberyard. While legions of these fellows were boring, sawing and generally chewing their way through $120 millions' worth of lumber last year, termites were able to eat their way through only $40 million. The first home craftsman was the caveman. He squatted over his work and grunted. The modern home craftsman also squats occasionally, but grunts only when he tries to straighten up. His language is more developed than the caveman's. You should hear it when something goes wrong. The caveman's basic tool was the stone hammer. The modern woodworker's is the power saw which is more developed than the caveman's stone hammer, but less versatile. You can't smack a dinosaur on the noggin with a Shopsmith. Some man on Long Island tried it and they took him away.

Noah was the first do-it-yourselfer of history. He made a triple-decker ark out of gopher wood. And Noah did it the hard way. No diagrams. No handy hardware store or local lumberyard. How-to-do-it-yourself has deep roots in American tradition, too. No sooner had the pilgrims stepped off Plymouth Rock than they met an Indian who said "How?" Then came George Washington, a pretty handy guy with a hatchet. He was followed by Abraham Lincoln, sometimes called "The Rail Splitter" because the bench saw had not yet been invented. But the era of the handyman who could do things for himself was already doomed. Eli Whitney had put the crusher on it with his cotton gin, which ushered in an age of decadent aristocracy. For generations smart people thought of their hands only as something that gave a finished look to a sleeve. Aside from the beau geste of tossing an occasional hand to a manicurist, it was a nuisance, something that got caught in mousetraps and was later to cause misunderstandings in crowded elevators. The hand had to be washed and dried endlessly. In winter it turned blue and had to be blown upon or stored in an old pocket. The hand had become obsolete. Suddenly, all this changed. About 1945 came the Do-It-Yourself revolution. People rediscovered their hands, and found that they were ideal for holding tools, for doing and making things around the home. Today smart people no longer show each other their operations, but their calluses.

THE FIRST HOME CRAFTSMAN

You know how there are those millions of stalwart, upstanding examples of American youth who join the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, who learn to be trustworthy, loyal, helpful, and like that, and who knuckle down and earn Merit Badges for such constructive activities as Bird-Bath Building and Chicken Raising. You know about them? Well, in this next article, we're not concerned with them. We're concerned with the millions of stalwart, upstanding examples of American youth who don't want to knuckle down and earn Merit Badges. We're concerned with you clods! Just because you don't indulge in constructive activities doesn't mean you shouldn't have a chance to earn Merit Badges. In this next article, MAD gives you the chance with seven awards for constructive activities you clods do indulge in.

MAD MERIT BADGES

BRAGGING

Requirements:

1. Be able to narrate convincingly a fictional experience, such as time you single-handedly foiled attempt by armed bandits to hold up Ladies Turkish Bath, or time you captured dangerous Russian spy.
2. Give four stimulating accounts of fanciful experiences with members of opposite sex. Work up repertory of gestures and vivid facial expressions for emphasis.
3. Learn to deliver such boasts as: "My ol' man can lick yer ol' man . . . anytime!"
4. Learn to deliver first aid to ol' man.

BULLYING

Requirements:

1. Demonstrate three examples of bullying, such as relieving article you've wanted from someone smaller than you; or forcibly winning argument with buddy by threatening to knock his block off; or if you're a boy, beating up a little girl. (If you're a girl, beating up younger brother is acceptable.)
2. Knock over old peddler's pushcart.
3. Knock over old peddler.
4. Wait for smallest, weakest classmate after school, make him carry your books home.
5. Better still, make him carry you home!

CIGAR SMOKING

Requirements:

1. Be able to smoke without flinching, gasping, or watering of the eyes, an 8 inch Panatela hemp-filled cigar (including smoking through cigar band) down to a 1/4" butt.
2. Show proficiency in disposing of cigar butt by over-shoulder toss into cuspidor at a distance of not less than 14 feet.
3. Develop ability to light up, and draw forth rich, billowing clouds of fragrant smoke from a chocolate cigar.
4. Smoke to the bitter end, with utter non-chalance, an exploding cigar.

CRIBBING

Requirements:

1. Demonstrate ability of adroit cheater to resist temptation of self-consciously raising eyes from exam paper to proctor.
 2. Develop three methods for cribbing, such as inserting scroll in empty wristwatch case. (As stem is wound, answers appear on face.) Occasionally ask proctor what time he has to dispel suspicion.
- Note: In above requirement, crude methods such as writing answers on white-walled sneakers will not be valid. Be original, like writing answers on insides of eyelids.

DEFACING

Requirements:

1. Collect needed equipment, like crayons, soap, chalk, old lipsticks, burnt cork, etc.
2. Design and execute five startling types of poster-defacing mustaches.
3. Design and execute four basic alteration devices for use on advertising signs like: a. front teeth black-out stencil; b. pimple stamper; c. horn-rimmed glasses tracing guide; d. adhesive Smith Brother type beard.
4. Demonstrate ability to scrawl clever remarks, poems, and messages illegibly on fences, sidewalks and rest-room walls.

GOOFING OFF

Requirements:

1. Demonstrate four goofing-off activities, such as sleeping in the cellar, lolling in lower branches of Sassafras Tree, dangling bare feet in curbside mud-puddle, napping during Civics class, etc.
2. Give six adequate lame excuses for getting out of running errand for parents, like: "I can't! I got a sprained ankle!" or "Why do I always gotta go down to the saloon for the pail of beer? I don't even like beer!" or "It's a free country! Lincoln freed the slaves! You can't make me!" Stuff like that.

LOITERING

Requirements:

1. Cultivate spineless, relaxed slouch in order to drape shape against front of: a. Drug store; b. Pool Hall; c. Burlesque.
2. Practice till perfected an uncouth leer.
3. Become adept at penny-pitching, candy machine kicking and key chain twirling.
4. Perfect ear-splitting but appreciative whistle followed by such jocular salutations as: "Hi'ya, Doll!" or "Va Va Voom!"
5. Demonstrate satisfactorily an ability to dangle cigarette from lower lip.
6. Flap lower lip.

EACH WEEK, THERE IS A BIG TV. SHOW COMES ON THE AIR WHICH OPENS LIKE THIS:

AND EACH WEEK, WHEN THIS SHOW COMES ON THE AIR, IT OPENS WORLDS LIKE THIS:

A broken promise
of things to come.

True tales made up
from the legendary past.

The wonderland of Nature's own film.

The happiest world
of them all—for kids.

BUT MAINLY, EACH WEEK WHEN THIS SHOW COMES ON THE AIR, IT REALLY OPENS THIS:

The Happy Happy Happiest World of them all
—for Walt Dizzy

AND NOW, HERE IS HOST WALT DIZZY, WHO USUALLY INTRODUCES DIZZYLAND

ADVENTURES LAND...the Wonder place

REAL-LIVE ADVENTURES CAMERAMAN WAITS YEAR FOR SHOT OF RARE BIRD

OZGOOD ZEISS, Dizzyland Real-Live Adventures ace cameraman perches on mountain ledge, awaits rare appearance of the never-before-photographed Ring-Necked Fuzzwort.

CAMERA READY, Ozgood waits... and waits. Summer wanes, Autumn leaves begin to fall, and Winter snows begin, but still no Fuzzwort. Determined Ozgood clings to perch.

SPRING THAW comes, and one year passes. Finally, after twenty month vigil, Fuzzwort makes appearance. Jubilant Ozgood takes history making chance-of-a-lifetime shot...

THEN, as Fuzzwort disappears again, Ozgood flings himself screaming from ledge, realizing that chance-of-a-lifetime shot is ruined. Dated film in camera had expired...

TOMORROWSLAND... a Broken Promise

FANTASTIC LOOK INTO FUTURE EXAMINES PROBLEMS OF MAN IN OUTER SPACE

TOMORROWSLAND FEATURE graphically depicts most vital problem yet to be solved before man can venture forth into outer space: the vital problem of zero-gravity, or state of total weightlessness where things float about in a free-fall.

DIZZYLAND ARTISTS work overtime in experimental vacuum-sealed studio, to create realistic animated sequences showing how free-fall problem is solved, like using webbed beds, plastic drinking bags, rubber-lined walls, and mainly plenty glue.

DIZZYLAND ARTISTS were able to create convincing, realistic animated sequences showing how problem is solved after experiencing free-fall in person. Thoughtful management forced entire staff to make mass leap from 10th floor studio window.

REAL-LIVE ADVENTURES PHOTOGRAPHER POSES AS BUFFALO TO GET CLOSE-UPS

SIGISMUND (Ciggy) SPONK, Dizzyland Real-Live Adventures trump cameraman employs clever (but uncomfortable) trick of draping himself with moth-eaten buffalo skin in ruse to sneak up through sagebrush to get breath-taking close up of herd.

CLEVER RUSE succeeds. Placidly grazing buffalo take no notice as disguised (and uncomfortable) Sigismund creeps into midst of herd and, setting up his hand-held combat-type 16 mm camera, begins shooting history-making close-up footage..

CLEVER TRICK backfires as magnificent herd bull, snorting and pawing ground, takes sudden fancy to charming (but uncomfortable) newcomer, decides to make Sigismund his happy bride. Plenty history-making close-up footage was lost in chase!

of Things to Come

VIVID STORY TRACES ROCKET DEVELOPMENT FROM NOVEL TOY TO PRESENT DAY

INFORMATIVE Tomorrowsland feature depicts history of rockets starting with invention as novel toy by Ancient Chinese and shows honorable inventors having much honorable fun...

FEATURE TRACES development from novel toy to have honorable fun with to first practical use with interesting attempt to send the mail via rockets in early nineteen-twenties.

FEATURE GOES ON to show how novel toy to have honorable fun with was developed by Germans during World War II into effective weapon of dishonorable fun, 'the dreaded V-2.

FEATURE COMES UP to date by showing scientists at White Sands making countless experimental launchings of latest rocket types. By George...! We're back having honorable fun...

FRONTREARLAND ... True Tales Made up

EXPLOITS OF FORMERLY UNHERALDED PIONEER HEROES TEACH TOD

Competition

TRADITIONAL AMERICAN SPIRIT of competition is conveyed during exciting keelboat race as raggle-taggle crews of Davy Crawcutt and Mike Finque eagerly pole their way down Mississippi River.

Resourcefulness

DESPERATE ATTEMPTS of Mike Finque and Davy Crawcutt to win keelboat race clearly illustrates for youth of this generation importance of relying upon honest American skill and ingenuity.

FANTASTICLAND ... the Happiest World of

The happiest world of them all?!!?

What's so happy about it?

Actually we're miserable!

Don't get the idea because we're drawn smiling, we're happy!

Used to be, we were big-shots around the Dizzy studios!

Used to be, we were the whole darn show!

Some thanks we get... after being responsible for all of Dizzy's success!

from the Legendary Past

AY'S YOUTH RESPECT FOR TIME-HONORED AMERICAN TRADITIONS

Teamwork

TYPICAL AMERICAN tradition of teamwork is depicted as Mike and Davy cooperate in sinking fleet of attacking Indian canoes.

Sportsmanship

GOOD OLD AMERICAN sportsmanship tradition is shown by Davy Crawcutt when he fails to shoot ale cup off Mike's head.

Leadership

FINE AMERICAN attribute of leadership is shown when Davy enters Congress and declares he can lick any man in the House!

Them All.

Now he pushes us aside! ... in favor of movies with REAL LIVE ANIMALS ... and REAL LIVE PEOPLE! Sometimes he even makes us act in them! Walt may tell you he's doing it mainly to try out new things ... Walt may tell you he's doing it mainly for kicks! The truth is he's doing it mainly for money!

ALFRED E. NEUMAN ANSWERS YOUR QUESTIONS

PROBLEM:

I am a serious medical student in college. But that's not my problem . . .

It's my boyfriend! I am interested in intellectual pursuits, stimulation of the mind, and like that. All he wants to do is neck . . .

He's tried everything to get my mind off my work . . . like the time he set fire to all of my text books . . .

And when that didn't work, he set fire to the college . . .

He follows me everywhere! He says making love to me is his sole purpose in life. I'm scared. What can I do?
—Distracted

SOLUTION:

Consider it an experiment. Try it once. You'll find it much more fun than any ol' text book!
